CONVERSATION

Filled him in!!!

Sam	I've prepared five cartons of our catalogues and fliers ready for the show.
Michelle	I believe you've made sure that four lines of products are printed on the catalogues and fliers, right?
Sam	Of course. You can count on me!
Michelle	Thank you, Sam. By the way, when is the application deadline? Max said he'd like to send out the form as soon as possible.
Sam	The deadline is this Friday. I've filled him in on the product lines and exhibition cost as well. He can send the application form anytime now if you okay it.
Michelle	Good. Tell him to proceed immediately. Let me know if he needs copies of my I.D.
Sam	Oh, one more thing, the fair attendants should wear the badge. And our banners and signs can only be displayed in and around our own booth, not in aisles.

Tuesday ARTICLE

Pokemon Go is the next big thing

The Japanese games giant Nintendo has released an app that is taking the world by storm. The next big thing, and new Internet sensation, is an augmented reality game called Pokemon Go. Players must physically move around the real world in order to capture mystical creatures called Pokemon (short for pocket monsters). It was only officially released last week, in the USA, New Zealand and Australia. It is about to overtake Twitter in the number of daily active users and it hasn't even been launched globally yet. Analysts report that in just 48 hours, Go was installed on 5.6 per cent of all Android devices in the USA. On average, users are spending twice as much time on Go than on apps like Snapchat.

Pokemon Go has already jumped to the top of the App Store and Google Play Store. It is also having an unprecedented social impact. Hackers have targeted illegal copies of the app to infect millions of smart phones. Other criminals have used the game to lure unsuspecting players to go to a location to collect a Pokemon character and then rob them or burgle their empty house. The app tracks your location via GPS as you walk around looking for Pokemon. The website PCmag.com advised: "Don't go walking around neighborhoods late at night for your Pokemon fix....If you can collect Pokemon...in public, crowded areas, we recommend doing that instead of shady spots at two a.m."

Thursday DEBATE

BAN THE SALE OF VIOLENT VIDEO GAMES/CENSOR VIOLENT VIDEO GAMES.

Since their inception and migration into homes during the early nineties, videogames have been about conflicts that need resolving. There are some that buck the trend, but the overarching plot in most games usually involves a protagonist and his need to defeat some villain. Further, over the past twenty years, most major console manufacturers have been focused on improving the realism of video games. The main method of doing this has been through upgrades to graphics engines. However, recently with the introduction of the Nintendo Wii, console manufacturers have been exploring new methods of game control beyond the traditional gaming controller.

Pros:

Video games exist as an interactive medium. The player has control over their character and many of their character's actions whereas in a book or movie, the audience does not. This means that the player can become invested emotionally in characters to a greater extent because of the autonomy afforded to each character.

Cons:

The proposition's arguments fail to stand up in the real world. Several major studies published in The Journal of Adolescent Health, The British Medical Journal and The Lancet (among others) have shown no conclusive link between video game usage and real-life violent behaviour. The Federal Bureau of Investigation found no evidence linking video game use to the massacre at Columbine (or other highly publicized school shootings).

Friday BUSINESS IDIOM FOCUS

Read and be familiar with the Business Idiom below and use them in your conversation.

Why study idioms?

One of the keys to speaking like a native is the ability to use and understand casual expressions, or idioms.

String Someone Along

Liz had high hopes of marrying Dean. When he ran off with another woman, she realized that he was just stringing her along. She had felt very strongly about him and was really hurt to see that he was deceiving her and had no intentions of ever marrying her.

Jump the Gun

Denise was planning on telling her grandparents that the doctor said she was going to have twins, but when her dad found out he jumped the gun and told them before Denise could say a word. He was so excited that he became hasty and revealed the news before Denise had a chance to tell them.

Kick the Bucket

It's been said that the old man knew of a buried treasure, but he kicked the bucket before telling anyone where it was. If the treasure exists, the old man unfortunately took the secret of its location with him when he died.

Out of the Woods

Although Eric was well on his way to recovering from his bout with pneumonia, he was still not out of the woods. The doctors told him that he would have to take it easy and avoid exposure to cold, since he was not out of danger and difficulty yet.

Hang On

During the depression years the Smiths had a great deal of trouble with their business, but somehow or other they were able to hang on. Although they almost lost their store, they managed to persevere until things got better.
